CHAPTER 303

The Powers of Attorney Act

1. Where a power of attorney for the sale or management of real or personal estate, or for any other purpose, provides that it may be exercised in the name and on behalf of the heirs or devisees, executors or administrators of the person executing it, or provides by any form of words that it shall not be revoked by the death of the person executing it, such provision is valid and effectual, subject to such conditions and restrictions, if any, as are therein contained. R.S.O. 1950, c. 284, s. 1.
